Student Cellphone Policy

In order to maintain a distraction-free learning environment, students who do not follow Washington Global's protocol of turning their cellphone into staff when they enter in the morning and are found to still have their cellphone during the school day receive an automatic after school detention. The cellphones of the students who do not stay for after school detention will remain at the school until a parent picks the phone up by appointment.

School Supplies

School supplies are essential for students to do well in their classes. In our PRIDE acronym and school-wide policies, P stands for Prepared! Please make sure that your student comes to school prepared with pencils, erasers, loose-leaf paper, pens, notebooks, binders, and any other supplies that your student needs. We hope to see you Prepared!

WolfPack PRIDE

Students earn points every period for showing positive values during class, such as preparedness, respect, integrity, discipline, and excellence that become awesome rewards!

Top Deanslist earners were able to attend our "Pop'ing into Spring" party. Congratulations!
