WEEKLY NEWSLETTER 3/9-3/13

Corona Virus School Updates

Washington Global has electronically sent our Corona Virus Action Plan to parents via email. You can view the plan on Washington Global's website at <https://washingtonglobal.org/info-for-families/>

If you have not received the plan via email or you have not been receiving the weekly newsletters by email, please contact the front office to provide a working email address to be added to the email list.

Homework Posted for Students and Parents

Parents and students can view their homework assignments online by following the link below. As always, if you have any questions, feel free to reach out to your student's teachers!

School Closed: 3/16

DCPS is moving their PD Day to Monday, March 16th from Friday, March 20th. Due to this change WGPCS is changing its PD to the same dates. This means the students will not have school on Monday the 16th, but will have school on the 20th. If you have any questions, please contact the main office at (202) 796-2415.

FREE SWIMMING AND ROWING PROGRAMS

Washington Global partners with Serve Your City to offer a free swimming and rowing program! Washington Global provides free transportation to the practice site and covers the entire cost of the program. Please see the practice schedule to the right and call the main office at (202) 796-2415 if you would like to register your child.

College Spotlight: Hampton University

This week’s college spotlight will look at a HBCU in southern Virginia: Hampton University. Hampton University is nestled away in downtown Hampton, Virginia and is located right on the water.

Hampton University is known for its business and communications programs. The school also has an excellent pharmacy school, where students can continue their education to become a pharmacist! Find out more information by following the link below
